BY ECF

Honorable Jennifer L. Rochon
United States District Judge
United States District Court
500 Pearl Street
New York, NY 10007

The parties shall, by May 5, 2023, provide another status letter to the Court, stating proposed next steps and whether the parties have reached a settlement in principle on all issues.

Dated: April 5, 2023
New York, New York

SO ORDERED.

JENNIFER L. ROCHON
United States District Judge

Re: ACLU v. FBI, 21 Civ. 10719 (JLR)

Dear Judge Rochon:

In accordance with the Court's February 6, 2023 Order, ECF No. 27, we write jointly on behalf of Defendant the Federal Bureau of Investigation ("FBI") and Plaintiff the American Civil Liberties Union ("ACLU") to provide the Court an update on the status of this matter.

After further communication between the parties, on March 17, the ACLU narrowed its request and asked the FBI to lift one redaction on one document. On April 4, the FBI provided the document to the ACLU with the redaction lifted. The parties therefore agree that all issues related to document production and redactions have been resolved.

The only remaining step in this matter is to come to an agreement about attorneys' fees. The parties intend to work together to attempt to resolve this issue without litigation. The parties can provide the Court with an update on the status of this matter within 30 days.

Respectfully submitted,

DAMIAN WILLIAMS
United States Attorney
